

presents a series of free public talks on

Classical Architecture in North East England

Thursdays at 6 pm

Institute of Medieval and Early Modern Studies, 7 Owengate, Palace Green, Durham

5th March Michael Johnson, Classical town halls in the North East

7th May Jane Grenville, Pevsner and Classicism in the North Riding of Yorkshire

18th June Anthony Geraghty, Vanbrugh and Cicero: The architecture of Castle Howard and Seaton Delaval reconsidered

For further details, please contact Edmund Thomas at e.v.thomas@durham.ac.uk.

This will be followed by a public conference:

The Architecture and Landscapes of Sir John Vanbrugh in North East England

as part of the

'Vanbrugh 300' (1726-2026) celebrations of the tercentenary of Vanbrugh's death on Wednesday 8th July

at Lumley Castle, Chester-le-Street, County Durham

Speakers will include Jeremy Musson, Mark Newman, and Martin Roberts.

Details to follow.